

REGISTER HERE FOR SEMINAR

Marx's Materialism: Praxis and Human Emancipation

Every Wednesday, November 2 - February 14
12:15PM - 1:45PM EST | 18:15-19:45 CET

The seminar aims to introduce Karl Marx's critical philosophy of materialism via analyzing primary texts, with a particular emphasis on Marx's concepts of "praxis" as a philosophical category, "practical criticism," and "practical materialism." The seminar will be based on 1-10 of Marx's primary texts, including, On the Jewish Question, Poverty of Philosophy, and Capital.

Free and open to students everywhere in the world
15-week seminar
10 ECTS Credits via Freie University Berlin

Siyaves Azeri

Associate Professor Visiting
Researcher Université de
Lorraine, Archives Henri-
Poincaré

Saladdin Ahmed

Visiting assistant professor of political theory at Union
College

This seminar is organized and funded by the Academic Freedom Network, including support from Humboldt Universität zu Berlin, Freie Universität Berlin, Academics in Solidarity at FU-Berlin, Off University, Einstein Fellows Research Group at HU-Berlin and The New University in Exile Consortium, The New School, NY, USA.